

We are what we repeatedly do.
Excellence,
Then, is not an act,
But a habit.
*Aristotle

Excellence means
presenting myself as an individual who truly cares, is at peace with life, and is organized, timely, and responsible.

Excellence means
being flexible, fun-loving, firm, and fair.

Excellence means
creating life filled with encouragement, love, patience and joy.

Excellence means bringing out the best in every person I come in contact with.

Excellence means
grounding my decisions in my faith, wise advice, and my intuition.

Excellence means
striving to learn daily academically and spiritually.

Excellence is applying who I have become to better life for all.
